

NORTHERN STATE UNIVERSITY
SUMMER SCHOOL WORKLOAD POLICY

Effective Fall 2005

Valid through 2008

Subject to Board of Regents Change in Policy
University Faculty Collective Bargaining Agreement 19.5

Faculty compensation for a three-semester hour course during the summer session will be based on seven percent (7%) of the faculty member's salary for the previous academic year contract. (As qualified in the 2005 University Faculty Collective Bargaining Agreement 19.5) Compensation for courses that are above or below the three semester hours shall be prorated on this basis.

Courses must meet the specified minimum enrollment listed below:

Graduate – seven (7) students

Combined graduate/undergraduate – ten (10) students

Undergraduate – ten (10) students

The administration will determine the number of positions allocated to each academic area. Faculty will have the opportunity to recommend course offerings. Teaching assignments will be finalized by the administration.
