South Dakota State University

ECE 441: Professional Issues in Child & Family Studies

Concepts addressed in class: Role of the school as a resource to the larger community

Specifically, students should review:

Teachers as a resource

   Exploring role in supporting families and communities

   Understanding contemporary families

   Role as a family resource person

   Engaging parents and families

   Working effectively with families

Allying with parents and families