1. Purpose

To outline the process for naming, revising, or reorganizing Academic Programmatic Units.

2. Governance

2.1. Per BOR Policy 1:27, The Board of Regents approves requests to name or rename facilities as well as name or rename academic divisions, departments, units.

2.2. Institution presidents and special school superintendents may name wings, halls, rooms or other areas within buildings, and chairs, lecture series or other funded academic honors.

2.3. Other revisions or reorganizations of Academic Programmatic Units are submitted directly to the Enrollment Services Center.

3. Definitions

3.1. Programmatic Unit: An academic College, Division, or Department at a university. Individual academic programs are not considered to be Programmatic Units.

4. Naming, Revisions, and Reorganization of Programmatic Units

4.1. When naming, renaming, revising, or reorganizing a Programmatic Unit such as a College or Department, universities should notify the Enrollment Services Center (ESC) by completing the Department and College Change Request Form in TDX. Any College or Department change will require an update to the Student Information System (SIS) or other systems.

4.2. It is important to note a substantial change to a college structure may create critical changes to the SIS and will require time to process and complete. Early notification is required to ensure the SIS will match the university needs.

4.2.1. Revisions to Programmatic Units may include:

4.2.1.1. New college or department codes;

4.2.1.2. Revised descriptions to existing college or department codes.
4.2.2. Reorganization of Programmatic Units may include moving departments and/or programs from one college or department to another.

4.2.3. Universities must provide a list of programs impacted by the revision or reorganization, including program codes and descriptions.

5. Approval Process for Naming of Programmatic Units

Approval Summary Quick View

All naming requests for academic divisions, departments, or units should be routed to BOR General Counsel.

5.1. Requests to name or rename academic divisions, departments, or units that involve recognition of specific persons or entities who have made important contributions (including financial contributions) to the university are submitted through the system General Counsel using the Naming Request Form associated with BOR Policy 1:27.

5.1.1. The university VPAA and/or President reviews proposed new naming or renaming academic units, divisions, or departments as described in Section 4 with the system General Counsel.

5.1.2. The system General Counsel will place the request on the Board of Regents agenda for review and approval; such requests will appear on the COPS agenda for review and approval at the discretion of the General Counsel.

5.1.3. Board Policy 1:27 governs requests to name divisions, departments, units, or facilities for specific persons or entities.

5.1.4. When naming a facility or programmatic unit for a person, family, or organization where there is no gift, the proposed honoree shall have achieved distinction in one or more of the following ways:

5.1.4.1. Serving the university in an academic or administrative capacity with high distinction, or

5.1.4.2. By contributing in other exceptional ways to the welfare and reputation of the university, to education, or the community in general.

5.1.5. When naming a facility or programmatic unit for a person, family, or organization where there is a gift to the institution, consideration has been given to the following factors:

5.1.5.1. The significance of the gift to the likely realization or success of a facility project or programmatic unit, based on the following guidelines:

A. A name proposed for a new facility or a facility to be renovated so as to recognize a gift to the institution may be considered when the gift represents a substantial component of the projects' total cost.

B. A name proposed for an existing but presently untitled facility so as to recognize a gift to the institution may be considered when the gift represents a significant proportion of the value of the facility.
C. A name may be proposed for a programmatic unit to recognize an endowed gift to the institution if the gift is similar to donations received for comparable naming at peer institutions, provided that any associated endowment will be sufficient to sustain the program or a substantial portion of it, since the naming shall be in effect for the life of the program.

D. If a fund-raising drive or a contractual agreement may involve naming that is subject to Board approval, the Board must be apprised of such initiatives in advance.

E. Before recommending a name in honor of an individual, corporate, or commercial entity, institutions must avoid any appearance of commercial influence or conflict of interest by taking additional due diligence. The naming for an individual associated with a corporation should be handled as any naming for an individual. Corporate names may be used to designate individual rooms or suites of rooms, as well as endowed chairs and professorships. Plaques in public spaces within buildings may recognize the contributions of corporations. The size, design, and wording of plaques and other signs that acknowledge corporate generosity and express institutional appreciation should be modest in size and appropriate to the public university or school setting.

5.1.5.2. The urgency or need for the project or program, or continuing support for the program.

5.1.5.3. The standing of the individual, family, or entity in the community or profession.

5.1.5.4. The nature and duration of the relationship of the proposed honoree to the university.
