1. A shared course is a course offered by one Regental university with approval for the course and provided to one or more other Regental universities that do not have approval for the course.
2. The receiving Regental institution(s) will offer the shared course as a Topics course (x92) at the same level of the approved course.
3. The receiving Regental institution(s) will use an appropriate prefix for the Topics course and the title of the approved course received.
4. If appropriate, a shared Topics course may include pre- and co-requisites.
