SDBOR Custom Data Analysis

Enrollment Book: USD 2017

---

Prepared by the SDBOR Office of Academic and Research Affairs, this report provides a compendium of data describing recent enrollment trends at the University of South Dakota.<sup>1</sup> Identical reports are generated for each regental university, and are intended to serve as a resource for campus officials for planning and analysis purposes. Supplemental interactive data are available from the SDBOR Fall Enrollment Dashboard on the Board of Regents website.

University Summary

In Fall 2017, USD reported a total headcount enrollment of 10,261 and a total full-time equivalent (FTE) enrollment of 7,473. Table 1 and Figure 1 show basic headcount and FTE figures for USD over time.<sup>2</sup>

Table 1

<sup>1</sup>All data for this report are sourced from Regents Information Systems fall term census date extracts. Questions about this report should be directed to Daniel Palmer at danp@sdbor.edu.

<sup>2</sup>Throughout this report, FTE values are rounded to the nearest 1.0. However, “Change” indicators refer to original unrounded values.

Enrollment by Student Characteristic

Table 2a splits USD’s unduplicated headcount totals into two categories: (1) students taking at least one on-campus course from USD, and (2) students taking off-campus courses from USD only. Students taking a combination of on-campus and off-campus courses from USD are included in the “On” category. Note that students reported in the “Off” category may have taken on-campus courses from other universities.

Table 2a
USD Headcount by Student Enrollment Type

Term	Total	On	Off	Pct On	Pct Off
Fall 2013	10,235	6,118	4,117	59.8%	40.2%

Table 3a shows USD headcount data by degree-seeking status (at USD). Note that students listed in the “nDS” (not degree-seeking) column may have been degree-seeking at other universities.

Table 3a
USD Headcount by Degree-Seeking Status

Term	Total	DS	nDS	Pct DS	Pct nDS

Table 4a combines the previous two characteristics (student enrollment type and degree-seeking status) into one cross-tabulation of USD headcount. Again, students reported in the “Off” categories may have taken on-campus courses from other universities. Likewise, students listed in the “nDS” columns may have been degree-seeking at other universities

Table 5a segments USD’s total headcount by resident status. Students in the “Resi” column are considered South Dakota residents for tuition purposes, while students in the “nResi” column are considered out-of-state students for tuition purposes.

Table 5a
USD Headcount by Resident Status

Term	Total	nResi	Resi	Pct nResi	Pct Resi

Table 6a provides headcount trends for three undergraduate student subgroups: first-time undergraduates, transferred-in undergraduates, and high school students. Note that these classifications are not exhaustive, meaning that the columns will not sum to 100 percent of the “All UGs” column (which shows the total population of undergraduates at USD.)

Table 6a
USD Headcount, Selected Undergraduate Groups

Term	All UGs	FirstTime	Transfer	HighSch	Pct FirstTime	Pct Transfer	Pct HighSch

Detailed Enrollment by Location<sup>3</sup>

Table 7a provides an alternative representation of USD headcount by location. In this table, students are duplicated by course location when applicable. For example, a student taking both an on-campus course from USD and an off-campus course from USD will be included in each respective column below. However, the “All” column continues to show unduplicated headcount. As a result, percentage columns show each subgroup’s proportion of the total student population; these proportions will not sum to 100.0 percent.

Table 7a
USD Headcount by Course Location

Term	All	On	Off	Pct On	Pct Off
Fall 2013	10,235	6,118	5,267	59.8%	51.5%
Fall 2014	10,061	6,111	5,315	60.7%	52.8%
Fall 2015	9,971	6,179	5,220	62.0%	52.4%
Fall 2016	10,038	6,148	5,782	61.2%	57.6%

Change	0.3%	-0.9%	14.2%	-	-

Source: Regents Information Systems

Table 7b displays the USD FTE generated by course location. For example, FTE reported in the “On” column below refer to all USD FTE generated through on-campus courses delivered by USD. This approach contrasts with previous FTE tables, which reported the total FTE generated by students per classification.

Table 8a displays USD students enrolled at other regental institutions. The “Other Any” column shows the number of USD students enrolling at other universities at any location, and the “Other On” and “Other Off” columns tally enrollments in on-campus and off-campus courses (at other universities), respectively. Students are duplicated by course location when applicable, except in the “USD” column, which is unduplicated.

Table 8a
USD Headcount at Other Universities by Course Location

Term	USD	OtherAny	OtherOn	OtherOff	Pct Any	Pct On	Pct Off

Table 16a shows counts of USD students who took at least one course by distance.<sup>4</sup> For comparison, the “USD” column shows total headcount at USD. The “Dist Any” column tallies students enrolling in any distance course, while the “Dist Univ” and “Dist Other” columns show students enrolling in distance courses offered by USD and other regental universities, respectively. Below, Table 16b shows FTE earned by USD students in various distance categories in comparison with FTE earned from all courses delivered by USD.
