District 28 Lawmakers Host Board of Regents at Faith

FAITH, S.D. – A town meeting on South Dakota public higher education is being hosted Thursday, Nov. 29, in Faith by District 28 lawmakers.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. at the Faith Community Center. Representatives of the South Dakota Board of Regents, its staff, and public university presidents will be on hand to visit with area residents. The public is invited to attend.

“In today’s world, businesses develop where there is a highly-educated and talented workforce,” said Regents President Harvey C. Jewett. “To be competitive in a global economy, South Dakota’s higher education system must respond to this ever-changing work environment. Through the continual re-evaluation of what we deliver at the public universities, and by developing new programs to meet new needs, the regents are able to quickly respond to these challenges.”

Sen. Ryan Maher, Rep. Betty Olson, and Rep. Tom Van Norman, who extended the invitation to the regents to meet in Faith, said the ideas exchanged at this meeting will help South Dakota’s public higher education system better plan for the future.
