

University Center-Rapid City Opens for Business

RAPID CITY – The new University Center-Rapid City represents a partnership among South Dakota’s six public universities working cooperatively to deliver accessible, high-quality education in one convenient location. The facility at 4300 Cheyenne Boulevard, located just off Interstate 90’s Exit 61, officially opened to the public April 12, 2011, with a ribbon cutting ceremony. Featured speakers were:

Dr. Dean Myers, dean of University Center-Rapid City

Dr. Jack Warner, executive director & CEO, SD Board of Regents

Dr. Kathryn Johnson, president, SD Board of Regents

Rapid City Mayor Alan Hanks

Senator Jeff Haverly, District 35-Rapid City

(Photos by the SD Board of Regents)