BHSU Student Wins Scarborough Scholarship

PIERRE, S.D. – Anna Letellier, an elementary education and special education major at Black Hills State University, has been awarded the Marlin R. Scarborough Scholarship by the South Dakota Board of Regents. The $1,500 scholarship honors the late Marlin R. Scarborough, who was president of the Board of Regents at the time of his death.

The Scarborough Endowment Fund annually provides a scholarship to a student at a South Dakota public university. Applicants must have a 3.5 grade point average, demonstrate leadership potential, and be nominated by their university.

Letellier had a cumulative GPA of 3.958 after completing three semesters at Black Hills State University. She is a graduate of Hulett High School, Hulett, WY.
