Tuition Rate Supports Guard, Military Members at Off-Campus Centers

SIOUX FALLS, S.D. – The South Dakota Board of Regents has set a special tuition rate to support members of the South Dakota National Guard and active-duty military personnel who take courses at one of three off-campus public higher education centers.

The self-support tuition rate of $250 per credit hour will match federal tuition assistance that is available to military students taking coursework at other higher education locations, regents' officials said.

“It is important that we make continuing education affordable and accessible for members of the National Guard, Reserves, and active-duty military,” said Jack Warner, the regents' executive director and CEO said. “This rate puts off-campus courses on par with coursework that is delivered on campus.”

The rate is effective beginning with the summer 2015 term at all university centers, located at Pierre, Rapid City, and Sioux Falls. The rate applies to members of the National Guard and active-duty personnel, including members of the Reserves, active Reserves, and active military.
