

President Knowlton Recognized by Board of Regents

RAPID CITY, S.D. (Dec. 15-16, 2011) -- The South Dakota Board of Regents honored departing President Douglas Knowlton of Dakota State University with a board resolution and gifts. Knowlton will leave the South Dakota public university system in February 2012, after eight years as Dakota State's president, to become the vice chancellor for academic and student affairs with the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities System.

Dakota State President Douglas Knowlton is presented a limited-edition print by South Dakota artist Joanne Bird by Regents President Kathryn Johnson.

At its Dec. 16 business meeting, the Board of Regents formally recognized President Douglas Knowlton for his eight years of service to the higher education system. Presenting a special board resolution are (from left): Regent Randy Schaefer of Madison, Regents Executive Director & CEO Jack Warner, President Knowlton, and Regents President Kathryn Johnson.
