USD Student Wins Scarborough Scholarship

PIERRE, S.D. – Conrad Adam has been awarded the Marlin R. Scarborough Scholarship for the 2016-2017 academic year by the South Dakota Board of Regents. The $1,500 scholarship honors the late Marlin R. Scarborough, who was president of the Board of Regents at the time of his death.

The Scarborough Endowment Fund annually provides a scholarship to a student at a South Dakota public university. Applicants must have a 3.5 grade point average, demonstrate leadership potential, and be nominated by their university.

Adam had a cumulative GPA of 4.0 after completing three semesters at the University of South Dakota. He is majoring in business administration and finance. Adam is a graduate of T.F. Riggs High School at Pierre.
