

SOUTH DAKOTA BOARD OF REGENTS

Budget and Finance

AGENDA ITEM: 7 – A

DATE: October 4-6, 2016

SUBJECT: Building Committee Report

On August 11, 2016, the building committee for the SDSU Stanley J. Marshall Center Additions & Renovations project, represented by Regent Roberts, selected EAPC/Sink Combs Dethlefs to serve as the architect engineer.

On August 22, 2016, the building committee for the NSU New Science and Math Building project, represented by Regent Morgan, selected the team of TSP Inc. + Smith Group JJR to serve as the architect engineer.

On August 22, 2016, the building committee for the NSU New Residence Hall project, represented by Regent Jewett, selected the team of Co-Op Architecture + Mackey Mitchell Architects to serve as the architect engineer.

On September 26, 2016, the building committee for the SDSU Performing Arts Center Theatre and Music Education Addition, represented by Regent Morgan, approved the Facility Design Plan for the project.

On September 26, 2016, the building committee for the SDSU Animal Disease Research and Diagnostic Laboratory (ADRDL), represented by Regent Morgan, approved the Facility Design Plan for the project.

On September 26, 2016, the building committee for the DSU Residence Hall/Learning Engagement Center, represented by Regent Schaefer, approved the project's new Guaranteed Maximum Price of $6,231,505.

On September 26, 2016, the building committee for the DSU Trojan Center Renovation/Addition, represented by Randy Schaefer, approved the project's new Guaranteed Maximum Price of $7,172,183.

INFORMATIONAL ITEM